Dress for Success Tulsa:
Our mission is to promote the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional business attire, a network of support and the career development tools to help them thrive in work and in life.

How it works:
Each Dress for Success Tulsa client receives one fitting for job interviewing and is eligible for additional clothing when she obtains employment. She also receives an assessment to determine proper placement in our Career Development Programs.

The women we serve:
- More than 75% are single mothers raising 2 or more children
- Our clients range in age from 18 to 60+
- Our clients represent a diverse group of ethnic and economic backgrounds

Who can use these services:
Women are referred to Dress for Success Tulsa by a continually expanding array of over 130 Community Partner agencies that include government agencies, homeless shelters, educational institutions, correctional facilities and domestic violence shelters among many other organizations.

What is the cost:
No fees are ever charged to the women who utilize our services.

Why it works:
Dress for Success Tulsa’s Career Services provides our clients with necessary education, tools, resources and support with focus on the transition from unemployment to a successful working environment.

Career Services Division:
- The Going Places Network by the Walmart Foundation helps unemployed and under-employed clients gain professional skills, accelerate their job search and build confidence through weekly training sessions, one-on-one career coaching and networking in a supportive environment.

- The Professional Women’s Group (PWG) provides our network of employed Dress for Success Tulsa clients the partnership of support, practical information and inspiration to achieve their self-defined success in career and life. Meetings are held monthly.
